On the Future of History: The Postmodernist Challenge and Its Aftermath

Nothing that concerns the community of men and women - situations and problems regarding justice, freedom, development, relations between peoples, peace - is foreign to evangelization, and evangelization would be incomplete if it did not take into account the mutual demands continually made by the Gospel and by the concrete, personal and social life of man[85]. Alexander Korda's film for the British war effort shows the world both at peace and on the verge of Nazi domination.
