A Hole in Time: Eden (Episode Book 3)

Twain's clever allegory explaining why your perspective is inevitably a reflection of your work.

Run With The Devil (The Initiation Of Angelina Book 2)

I really enjoyed the afterword in which the author separates scientific fact from speculation and elaborates on the various current scientific theories as in educated hypothesis, not Relativity that he makes use of in the book. But it does have the questions that will hopefully spark nuanced discussions.
